

Seneca College Audio-Visual Services Recommended Video/DVD List For:

Ethics

To find other videos in this subject area on the online catalogue, use the following terms:

Journalistic ethics	Business ethics
Selling - Moral and ethical aspects	Marketing - Moral and ethical aspects.
Legal ethics	Environmental ethics
Medical ethics	Management - Moral and ethical aspects
Sexual ethics	Decision making – Moral and ethical aspects
Mass media – Moral and ethical aspects	Social responsibility of business Corporations

Baraka (DVD) York Campus

BL600.B37 B37 2002

96 minutes

"Baraka" was photographed on six continents in 24 countries including Tanzania, China, Brazil, Japan and Nepal together with major U.S. and European locales. In capturing the planet's glories and violent calamities, "Baraka" tells the spellbinding story of man's diversity and his impact on the world. This is a film that transcends geographical and language barriers to inspire audiences around the world!

Beyond borders--ethics in international business

HF5387 .B49 1990z

31 minutes

Explores the practical side of the ethical and legal issues unique to international business. As Canadian companies expand global operations to remain competitive, businesses will have to face ethical questions in their daily interactions.

Beyond good intentions

LB1779 .B49 1998

45 minutes

Examines ethics in the student-supervisor relationship. Consists of interviews with students and supervisors; focuses on power/privilege, role dynamics and responsibility, relationships, diversity and working across differences, and boundary violations.

Big bucks, big pharma: marketing disease & pushing drugs

QV736 .B592 2006

46 minutes

Big Bucks, Big Pharma pulls back the curtain on the multi-billion dollar pharmaceutical industry to expose the insidious ways that illness is used, manipulated, and in some instances created, for capital gain. Focusing on the industry's marketing practices, media scholars and health professionals help viewers understand the ways in which direct-to-consumer (DTC) pharmaceutical advertising glamorizes and normalizes the use of prescription medication, and works in tandem with promotion to doctors. Combined, these industry practices shape how both patients and doctors understand and relate to disease and treatment.

The big sell York Campus

HF5831 .T56 1990

35 minutes

Asks whether it is ethical to advance an advertising career by directing an advertising campaign for beer towards young adults and teenagers.

Biodemocracy making a difference York Campus

QH332 .B56 2002

38 minutes

At the Metro Convention Centre in Toronto, the biotech industry is holding a conference, but the public isn't invited. Activists have organized an alternative gathering called Biojustice/Biodiversity to address the controversial issues surrounding bioengineering and GMOs. [...] BIODEMOCRACY : MAKING A DIFFERENCE is a compelling critique of the biotech industry and genetic engineering. It raises timely questions about how the science is being done, the lack of labelling, government funding and the lack of risk assessment. 'We don't know the long-term effects,' continues Suzuki. 'It's far too early.'

The burden of knowledge: moral dilemmas in prenatal testing King Campus

RG628 .B87 1994

54 minutes

Explores the difficult ethical issues arising from advances in biotechnology that now make it possible to identify genetic defects during pregnancy. Seven couples speak openly about how they made individual decisions about prenatal testing and how they have dealt with the negative and positive consequences.

Business

HD70.C2 B865 1999

297 minutes, 3 videocassettes

Cassette 1

Exploring the world of business

Ethics and social responsibility

Global business

Forms of business ownership

Small business, entrepreneurship, and franchises

Management process

Creating the organization

Union-management relations

Overview of marketing

Product and price

Wholesaling, retailing, and physical distribution

Cassette 3

Promotion

Business research, management information and computers

Accounting

Money, banking and credit

Financial management

Securities, markets and investments

Risk management and insurance

Business ethics: a 21st century perspective

HF5387 .B88 2000

17 minutes

Touches on a complex, and timely business issue, making difficult choices that reflect ethics we can personally stand behind. Because companies large and small are involved in global marketing, cultural and ethnic variances must be considered to ensure business is conducted in an ethical manner to all parties involved.

Business ethics: the bottom line

HF5387 .B875 1997

29 minutes

Several experts examine the moral obligation corporations have to their employees and to the communities where their plants exist.

Capturing reality: the art of documentary (DVD) York Campus

PN1995.9.D6 C37 2008

97 minutes

A genre as unique as the people who bring it to life, documentary challenges perceptions and inspires critical reflection on our world. But do documentaries represent the "truth"? Over 30 renowned directors--including Errol Morris, Nick Broomfield and Werner Herzog--reflect on the power of their craft, and their ethical and social responsibility as filmmakers in Capturing reality: The art of Documentary. With emotionally charged insight and clips from essential works of the genre, this is a lively and panoramic view of contemporary cinema unlike any other.

A choice for K'Aila King Campus

RD546 .C48 1990

26 minutes

An 11-month-old North American Indian boy named K'Aila dies of a liver disorder. Both parents elect not to use a transplant to save the child. They discuss moral and cultural values of their Indian heritage.

Choosing death King Campus

R726 .C457 1993

120 minutes

Includes a 70-minute documentary entitled: An appointment with death.

This examination of euthanasia in the Netherlands focuses on various accounts from doctors, patients, and families. Includes a studio discussion relating the Dutch experience to the euthanasia debate in the United States.

The clone age York Campus

QH442.2 .C47 1998

52 minutes

Explains the science that undergirds the controversial practice of cloning. Shows how cells function and how we can manipulate their reproduction. Discusses some of the ethical dilemmas of cloning.

Clone Inc.

QH442.2 .C4613 2000

52 minutes

The Pandora's box of reproductive technologies is open and the creation of the first human clone may be on the way. This video takes a critical look at current advocates of human cloning . Experts plunge us headlong into this moral dilemma and raise questions for a crucial debate. Are we letting eugenics in by the back door?

Code gray, ethical dilemmas in nursing King Campus

RT85 .C628 1984

28 minutes

Focuses on some of the most typical ethical dilemmas arising in bedside nursing in institutional settings.

Confronting discrimination and prejudice (DVD)

BJ1419 .C66 2008

37 minutes

Examines what happens when ordinary people become witnesses to events of discrimination and prejudice. Religious discrimination. Race and domestic abuse. Harassment of the overweight. Race and crime.

Consuming kids: the commercialization of childhood (DVD)

HF5415.32 .C6 2008

72 minutes

Consuming Kids throws desperately needed light on the practices of a relentless multi-billion dollar marketing machine that now sells kids and their parents everything from junk food and violent video games to bogus educational products and the family car. Drawing on the insights of health care professionals, children's advocates, and industry insiders, the film focuses on the explosive growth of child marketing in the wake of deregulation, showing how youth marketers have used the latest advances in psychology, anthropology, and neuroscience to transform American children into one of the most powerful and profitable consumer demographics in the world. Consuming Kids pushes back against the wholesale commercialization of childhood, raising urgent questions about the ethics of children's marketing and its impact on the health and well-being of kids.

Crisis call

RC455.2.E8 S59 2003

90 minutes

In this documentary award-winning producer-director Laura Sky asks, is there any way to prevent a mental health crisis from escalating into violence? For answers she looks to the police, psychiatric survivors, and to many others involved in crisis interventions.

Deception King Campus

R724 .D43

29 minutes

Presents a realistic case which asks the question: Should doctors and nurses always tell the truth to their patients?

A decision-making framework for clinical ethics (DVD) King Campus

R725.5 .D43 2007

60 minutes

Discusses differentiating between ethical dilemmas and moral distress. Explores a framework to apply when making clinical ethical decisions through the use of case study presentations.

Discussions in bioethics King Campus

R724 .D572 1986

106 minutes

A series of light open-ended dramas to stimulate discussion of values and ethics in relation to modern medical technology.

Do scientists cheat? King Campus

Q175.37 .D6 1988

58 minutes

Examines the issue of scientific fraud. Examines why scientists may misrepresent research findings. Analyzes how our scientific systems deal with quality control, and considers the adequacy of the scientific community's response when a researcher is involved in fraud.

Doing well and doing good: corporate social responsibility as a profit generator (DVD)York Campus

HD60 .S93 2004

60 minutes

Lecture by the CEO of Timberland Company on how his company has become an example for socially-responsible corporations and has proven that companies can both do well for their stockholders and do good for communities.

Dreams and dilemmas: parents and the practice of neonatal care King Campus

RJ253.5 .D74 1990z

58 minutes

Outcomes of pregnancy are steadily improving in this era of modern neonatal care, but neonatal medicine also demands difficult decisions from parents and caregivers as they struggle with medical and ethical uncertainty. Video traces the experience of one couple and their 24 week old twin sons over the course of six months in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit of Dartmouth Hitchcock Medical Center.

Earthlings (DVD)

HV4708 .E27 2007

95 minutes

A film about mankind's complete dependence on, yet total disrespect for, animals used as pets, food, clothing, entertainment, and for medical or scientific research. With hidden cameras and never-before-seen footage, Earthlings chronicles the day-to-day practices of some of the largest industries in the world, all of which rely entirely on animals for profit

Emperors of avarice: corporate greed (DVD)

HV6769 .E47 2002

24 minutes

Analyzes the factors that contributed to the Enron, Tyco, WorldCom, ImClone, and Arthur Andersen scandals. Factors cited are: stock options, conflicts of interest, and political interference.

Enron: the smartest guys in the room (DVD)

HD2741 .E5766 2005

110 minutes

The inside story of one of history's greatest business scandals, in which top executives of America's seventh largest company walked away with over one billion dollars, while investors and employees lost everything.

The established business (DVD)

HG4027.7 .N451 2005

25 minutes

How does an established company fund itself? Dave Nellist explains the points, drawing on the experience of real-life businesses. The best source of funding comes from profits - but what if you run out of cash?

Ethics & social responsibility

HD60 .E84 2004

28 minutes

Distinguishes between laws and ethics, and introduces the concepts of social responsibility and green marketing.

Ethics & special needs King Campus

TX911.3.T73 E84 1996

16 minutes

Discusses the importance of ethics in tourism industry. Describes how to serve guests of all races, cultures, gender & special needs with respect and dignity.

Ethics at work: doing the right thing on the job (DVD)

HD4905 .E83 2004

20 minutes

Is it ok to give your friends free food at the restaurant where you work? Or bring home supplies from the office? Are these practices just as wrong as stealing from the proverbial cash drawer? That's what this video explores, by looking at the ins and outs of ethical behavior in today's work environment. From extended lunches to computer hacking to sexual harassment, we discuss the fine lines of business ethics with employers, employees and workplace professionals.

Ethics in action

BJ45 .E84 1998

60 minutes

This video is divided into three segments. "Ethical decision making" examines the steps necessary in resolving ethical dilemmas and puts this model into practice through role-plays & discussion. "Values and the helping relationship" addresses the fact that every counsellor has a value system that is likely to impact the counselling relationship. "Boundary issues & multiple relationships" addresses an ever-growing concern in practice regarding engaging in multiple roles and relationships with clients.

Ethics in corporate America a crisis of credibility (DVD)

HF5387.5.U54 E83 2004

35 minutes

This NewsHour program scrutinizes the state of business ethics in an America riddled with financial fraud.

Ethics in health care controlling health care costs (DVD) King Campus

RA395.A3 .C35 2009

48 minutes

Considers the economic challenges, paradoxes, and dilemmas of modern health care, with emphasis on the ethical choices to be made as we gain the capacity to prevent and cure disease through promising but costly technological and pharmaceutical advances.

The ethics of biotechnology (DVD) York Campus

QH442 .E85 2009

22 minutes

The Nuclear Age - sprung upon the world with the atomic bomb - remains a bitter memory. How biotechnology, with its power to change life on Earth at the most fundamental level, will be viewed in the decades to come depends on decisions being made right now. This program confronts viewers with some of the ethical and moral implications of cloning, stem cell research, and animal testing.

Euthanasia with David Suzuki King Campus

R726 .E784

48 minutes

Discusses euthanasia and the question of when does it become morally legitimate to "pull the plug" or guide the patient into an "easy death".

Finance for starting a business (DVD)

HG4027.7 .N45 2005

20 minutes

Dave Nellist presents an entertaining guide to sources of finance for start-ups. You might get a loan, but you'll have to pay it back with interest. If you start a limited company you can raise money by selling shares in the business. Maybe you'll get the backing of a venture capitalist.

Freedom of expression: resistance and repression in the age of intellectual property (DVD)

KF2979 .F744 2007

52 minutes

This provocative and amusing documentary ... explores the legal and ethical battles being waged in courts, classrooms, museums, film studios, and the Internet over control of our cultural commons.

Fresh (DVD)

S494.5.S86 F738 2009

70 minutes

This documentary film profiles the farmers, business executives and community organizers who are reinventing our food system. Fresh focuses on the people who are making a difference. It's character-driven, says producer Ana Joanes. The experts are secondary.

The genetic takeover, or, mutant food

TP248.65 .F66 G46 2000

53 minutes

In just a few short years, genetically modified plants have become part of our daily diet and are already found in 75% of processed foods. This revolution has occurred without consumer awareness and without the knowledge of potential risks to our health and to the environment. Many condemn the absence of independent, adequate testing and labelling. North America has been slow to react. In their relentless fight for profits, the industrial giants seem willing to ignore basic safety rules. Can food crops remain at the mercy of private interests?

Global ethics (DVD)

HF5387 .G66 2003

17 minutes

An overview of business ethics issues in a global market.

Help me die King Campus

R726 .H45 1992

45 minutes

Probes the ethical and moral issues involved when loved ones who are terminally ill ask their physicians or a family member for assistance in ending their life.

Human genome project (DVD) York Campus

QH442.2 .H86 2005

34 minutes

The goal of the Human Genome Project is revolutionary. It (already completed in 2003) is to decipher all of the genes in the human species. That is, to make public the detailed blueprints for making a human being. This program goes inside an automated gene sequencing laboratory where students will learn how human genes are isolated, fragmented and how their DNA base sequences are determined. Controversial ethical issues are also addressed.

In our own image (DVD) York Campus

RB155.6 .I527 2004

41 minutes

A documentary on the ethical dilemmas faced by families with hereditary disorders whether or not to have a child who will inherit their disorder. Discusses how society deals with people who are "different," and the ethics of preventing children with certain genes from being born.

In search of character (DVD)

BJ1661.I5 H66 1999 (Honesty)

30 minutes

BJ1661.I5 I58 1999 (Integrity)

30 minutes

BJ1661.I5 R47 1999 (Respect)

30 minutes

BJ1661.I5 T78 1999 (Trustworthiness)

30 minutes

Through the Dr. Mike Radio Show, core virtues that help teens develop into caring, respectful, responsible people are spotlighted.

In the middle of the end

R726.8 .I55 1990z

29 minutes

Explores bioethical decision making as it relates to health care for the elderly, ranging from the individual patient's right to die to the use of pharmacological restraints in a nursing home. Looks at four families facing life and death dilemmas, including the decision to refuse treatment and "coding" an unconscious patient whose prognosis is poor.

It's a teen's world wired for sex, lies and power trips (DVD) King Campus

HQ27 .I87 2009

75 minutes

What price do teenagers pay to be cool, hip and popular in a sexually charged social world? Whether it's posting sexy photos and raunchy video on the net, ass-grabbing in the school hallway or spreading explicit gossip that shatters high school lives, harassment is commonplace, even acceptable. Through computer screens, inside all ages clubs, with candid personal diaries and the teens' own short dramas about sexual pressures, It's a Teen's World is an unflinching expose of three culturally diverse groups of Toronto teens who share what it's like to navigate a tangled web of sex, lies and power trips

Justice: what's the right thing to do? (DVD)

JC578 .J88 2009

720 minutes, 3 DVDs

Harvard University professor Michael Sandel presents students with ethical dilemmas on modern day issues -- such as affirmative action and same-sex marriage -- then conducts lively, engaging, and remarkably intimate debates that challenge students moral reasoning. Disc 1. The moral side of murder & The case for cannibalism ; Putting a price tag on life & How to measure pleasure ; Free to choose & Who owns me? ; This land is my land & Consenting adults disc 2. Hired guns & For sale: motherhood ; Mind your motive & The supreme principle of morality ; A lesson in lying & A deal is a deal ; What's a fair start? & What do we deserve?
disc 3. Arguing affirmative action & What's the purpose? ; The good citizen & Freedom vs. fit ; The claims of community & Where our loyalty lies ; Debating same-sex marriage & The good life.

Law office confidentiality

KF8959.A7 L3 1996

10 minutes

Stresses the importance of protecting the confidences of a law office client. Gives safeguards for protecting both written and oral communication to avoid an embarrassing situation.

Law office confidentiality II: new concerns

KF8959.A7 L31 1991

12 minutes

Stresses the importance of protecting the confidences of a law office client. Gives safeguards for protecting both written and oral communication to avoid an embarrassing situation.

Legal ethics for support staff

KF306 .L43 1993

22 minutes

Discusses ethical issues in the legal profession that affect law office staff, and offers ways of handling and preventing ethical violations.

Let her die

HQ777 .L47 1993

55 minutes

Tells the shocking story of how traditional culture combined with Western technology is responsible for India's twenty-five million missing females. Newborn girls are killed by parents in rural India daily. Those who can afford the fee of sex-determination clinics abort female fetuses because girls have little value and are expensive to raise in the Indian society.

Media ethics

P94 .M42 1998

28 minutes

News professional and executives from NBC, CBS, Capitol-EMI Records and Mercury Records speak out about the ethical dilemmas their industries face. ... The need for honesty and fairness, the subtle pressure of commercial interests, and the lure of sensationalism are discussed in this frank investigation of the pressures and circumstances that make up the context of media ethics.

Media hype: when news coverage goes too far (DVD)

P96.O24 M435 2006

41 minutes

Examines factors that contribute to the exaggeration of risks and danger in the news media, using stories involving murder, shark attack, road rage, and carjacking as examples of skewed reporting. From the television program 20/20.

Medicine under the influence (DVD)

HV890.C2 M43 2004

112 min

Tackles a taboo subject: the tragic effects of life-sustaining medical treatment on infants. Through the courageous testimony of a handful of doctors and therapists as well as the shocking stories told by devoted parents of disabled children, this documentary denounces the lack of support offered to science's little "miracles". Once saved, the children are more or less left to their fate by a medical system that does not give them the therapy they need to improve their quality of life and develop to their fullest potential.

Morality: judgments and action

BJ1408.5 .M673 2002

30 minutes

This video reviews some of the basic work of Piaget, Kohlberg and Milgram and investigates current research into the domain theory of Dr. Turiel and his associates. Factors that lead us to act on our judgments, or not, are critically examined using issues important to today's students

The myth of the liberal media: the propaganda model of news

PN4888.O25 M98 1997

60 minutes

Edward Herman and Noam Chomsky discuss their comprehensive framework for understanding how the news is produced and in whose interests it works. They argue that the news media is subordinated to corporate and conservative interests and is not liberal.

The Enron collapse: a political scandal?

News in review April 2002

D848 .C17 2002 Apr.

15 minutes

The collapse of this U.S. financial giant, one of the largest business failures in American history is fraught with political scandal and recriminations. In this report we examine the history of Enron, the accusations and evidence of dubious political connections, and the enormous losses suffered by ordinary shareholders.

On our watch (DVD)

DT159.6.D27 O5 2007

60 minutes

The world invoked its vow 'Never Again!' after the genocide in Rwanda and atrocities in Srebrenica. Then came Darfur. Over the past four years at least 200,000 people have been killed, 2.5 million driven from their homes, and mass rapes have once more been used as a weapon of war in a brutal campaign by Janjaweed militias and the Sudanese government against civilians in Darfur. FRONTLINE asks why the international community and the United Nations have once again failed to stop the slaughter.

On the eighth day, perfecting Mother Nature. Making perfect babies.

QH438.7 .O5

51 minutes

Takes a critical look at reproductive technology and how it is transforming human life. Explores the origins and applications of the technology, the dangers, the moral and ethical issues, and future implications.

Pearson Education Canada's Sociology video library (DVD)

HM51 .P43 2003

360 minutes, 4 DVDs

This DVD set includes many films featuring the various aspects of Sociology.

Disc 1

Culture jam: hijacking commercial culture

Harm's way

Almost real: connecting in a wired world

Tokyo girls

FIX: the story of an addicted city

Disc 2

East side showdown

Lost generations (India)

Rosies of the North

In the Flesh

Pride and prejudice: human rights vs. racism

Disc 3

A license to remember: je me souviens

Redskins, tricksters, and puppy stew (Dead Dog Cafe)

The silver age (Japan)

For man must work or the end of work (Maquiladoras)

Life with Dad

Poverty, chastity, obedience

Working like crazy

Disc 4

Drug deals

Reinventing the world: cities (Sao Paolo)

Fury for the sound: the women at Clayoquot

This is what democracy looks like

McLuhan's wake (the Global Village)

Points of departure: ethical challenges for court and community

HV2402 .P65 2000

47 minutes

This video can be used to train interpreters on the expectations placed upon the professional interpreter. Tenets of the Code of Ethics are highlighted in the scenarios, the panel discussions and resource materials. Expert panellists discuss strategies for dealing with compromising situations involving handling challenges, maintaining impartiality, and ensuring accuracy.

Professional choices: ethics at work

HV10.5 .P76 1995

40 minutes

Social work practitioners, educators and administrators discuss the subject of ethical social work practice and the underlying values and principles of social work profession. Issues related to confidentiality, boundaries, indiscretion, and client self-determination are covered.

Professional ethics for nurses and social workers (DVD) King Campus

RT84.5 .P76 2005

30 minutes

Program identifies the current issues and trends in healthcare ethics as well as the role of nurses and social workers as part of the healthcare team. The professional ethics of both social workers and nurses are highlighted

Race to execution (title #1)/ Juror number six (title #2) (DVD)

HV9950 .R3383 2008

43 minutes

Race to execution: Follows the cases of two death row inmates to examine the problem of race discrimination in the U.S. criminal justice system, particularly with regard to death penalty sentencing. Juror number six: A personal political internet documentary on the relationship between media, race, crime and punishment with the viewer as juror.

The science of cloning York Campus

QH442.2 .S38 1997

25 minutes

Explains the biomechanics of the process of cloning which was used by Ian Wilmut to clone Dolly the sheep, the world's first cloned mammal. Traces the history of genetic reproduction technology such as in vitro fertilization, parthenogenesis and genetic therapy. Implications for biology, medicine and agriculture are discussed, as well as possible abuses.

Shell shock: the failure of corporate ethics (DVD)

HF5387 .S54 2005

39 minutes

When oil conglomerate Shell stunned investors by announcing a 20 percent reduction in its proven reserves, pensions and portfolios suffered around the world. This program reveals a pattern of exaggeration and cover-up at the company's top level -- specifically involving the former chairman and head of production. An unflinching analysis of a failure in business ethics, Shell Shock raised complex and timely questions: At what point did protection of the company's image usurp shareholder interests? How did financial industry safeguards let such a crisis develop? And how can similar fiascoes be prevented in the future?

Stem cells (DVD) York Campus

QH587 .S725 2005

34 minutes

Biotechnology in the 21st century.

To choose no harm: ethical decision-making at the end of life

R726 .T6 1996

45 minutes

Uses case studies of a young man with AIDS and a terminal cancer patient to discuss issues facing caregivers and patients at the end of life.

To hurt and to heal King Campus

RJ47 .T62

105 minutes, 2 videocassettes

Explores neonatal and pediatric dilemmas, documenting the manner in which staff and parents communicate, discuss and decide the issues at hand

The truth about lies (DVD) York Campus

JK468.E7 T78 1994

60 minutes

Examines how deception has influenced some major events in the 20th century and how self-deception shapes our personal lives and the public mind. Investigates reasons why deception is used and recounts historical events to illustrate the consequences. Focuses on the Bay of Pigs, the war in Vietnam, Watergate, and the explosion of the space shuttle Challenger.

Truth and betrayal (DVD)

BJ45 .T78 2003

18 minutes

What do you do with a secret that's not yours? When is revealing the truth considered betrayal? Does the value of truth outweigh the cost? Truth and Betrayal transports the view into the consciousness of James Hurd -- an 18-year-old faced with important decisions. This film contains scenes with violence and coarse language that could offend some viewers. It deals with mature and controversial issues such as stereotypes, abuse, crime, and justice.

Truth or fiction? Photography and ethics York Campus

P94 .T78 2003

27 minutes

Uses case studies involving Iwo Jima, Elian Gonzalez, and O.J. Simpson to show how images can be manipulated to influence the way viewers perceive events. Covers the ethics of photography and the positive and negative impacts of digital technology.

Virtue in business: a CEO's perspective (DVD) York Campus

HF5387 .L66 2003

48 min

Pam Lopker, chairman and president of QAD, Inc., suggests that to sustain business over time, an undercurrent of values must permeate all aspects of an organization. Only by following the three R's of business -- reciprocation, relationships, and reputation -- can a company achieve long-term success.

Without God (DVD)

B821 .W66 2004

46 minutes

Dr. Robert Buckman lives without God everyday. He is a humanist. Religion, spirituality and ethics are explored as Dr. Buckman examines how we can find a moral compass without seeking supernatural intervention. Many influential thinkers ... discuss ... how they live a contented, secular life, what motivates them and how they feel they will come to a place of peace just before the ultimate end. Interviews with neurologists and anthropologists reveal recent research on the "belief gene" which may or may not hardwire the brain to accept things on faith. Humanists believe in free thought, reason and the scientific method.

Last updated: June 2011