

Seneca College Audio-Visual Services Recommended Video/DVD List For:

Presentation Skills & Public Speaking

To find other videos in this subject area on the online catalogue, use the following headings:

Public speaking	Public speaking Audio-visual aids
Business presentations	Business presentations Audio-visual aids
Sales presentations

10 vital rules for giving incredible speeches and why they're irrelevant

PN4130 .A15 1990

33 minutes

Tom Peters gives an entertaining speech peppered with anecdotes and insights into how he became one of today's most popular speakers; he refutes typical textbook rules on speech making and moves on to his own observations on the art of presentation.

Anxiety

PN4121 .A679 1998

29 minutes

Part of the series Speaking with confidence. Learn to overcome this very common problem of public speaking. Emphasizes value of preparation, practice and focusing on the audience

The basics of how to plan, write and give a winning presentation

PN4193.B8 B37 2006

30 minutes

Be ready to anticipate the moment. Feel the goals and aspirations of your audience and make the presentation of your life! Divided into three sections--planning, writing and giving a presentation, this training program will help you overcome the "presentation jitters" and deliver what the audience expects--a great speech!

Be prepared to speak: the step-by-step video guide to public speaking

PN4121 .B39

27 minutes

Demonstrates techniques for preparing and practicing speeches. Follows one speaker's progress through the process of speech writing, speech presentation and control of stage fright.

Critical thinking

PN4121 .C745 1997

28 minutes

Critical thinking details five principles of thinking analytically. It presents examples of personal (ethical) proofs, and discusses deductive and inductive arguments.

Delivering successful presentations

PN4121 .D385 1992

28 minutes

Shows how to prepare, practice, and deliver convincing presentations using proven tips and techniques that effective, successful presenters use to make their point.

Delivery Skills

HF5718 .W56 pt. 1

20 minutes

Part one of the series Winning them over with Paul LeRoux. Discusses the most common mistakes made by presenters, and shows how to correct them. Demonstrates the importance of proper stance, good eye contact, the value of gesturing and pauses in pacing your presentation.

Dragons' den best of season 3 (DVD)

HG5158 .D733 2009

172 minutes

Selected episodes from a reality television program where aspiring entrepreneurs pitch their business ideas to a panel of five rich Canadian entrepreneurial businesspeople--the eponymous "dragons"--hoping that they will offer to invest capital in return for equity. With each "dragon" having an amount of cash to invest in the idea that they think is a sound business proposition, the entrepreneurs have to decide the best offer to accept, that is if they manage to get that far.

The elevator pitch

HF5438.8.P74 E43 2000

15 minutes

At a conference in California Canadian business men take part in a contest to see who can make the best business pitch. Each has thirty seconds to present their case. It is compared to having to give a pitch to a customer in an elevator.

The floor is yours now

HF5718.22 .F56 1988

25 minutes

A young manager, nervous about making his first group presentation, is coached on public speaking by his invisible "double."

The greatest speeches of all-time (DVD)

PN6121 .G74 1998

68 minutes

A collection of 15 the best speeches from world leaders, including speeches of FDR, Winston Churchill, Douglas MacArthur, Harry S. Truman, JFK, Martin Luther King, Jr., Robert F. Kennedy, Malcolm X., Richard M. Nixon, and Ronald Reagan.

How to make a presentation

HF5718.22 .H68 1988

28 minutes

Provides a step by step guide to help individuals increase the effectiveness of their presentations. Teaches viewers to present their message, deliver information, persuade or solicit funds or services. While video is older, it gives an excellent overview of making presentations.

How to write and deliver great speeches: the Toastmasters international guide to public speaking (DVD) *Markham Campus

PN4129.15 .H69 2006

35 minutes + 1 study guide

This program covers the skills you need for writing and delivering effective presentations, whether you're speaking to a huge auditorium or within the confines of a business meeting or boardroom.

Killer presentation skills (DVD)

HF5718.22 .K55 2006

90 minutes

In this captivating video, filmed before a live audience of 200 and enhanced with studio-overlaid visuals of the relevant slides, you will be privy to the most important presentation delivery skills that PublicSpeakingSkills.com has heretofore only shared with their private corporate clients. It's all here: How to make contact with every individual in the audience; how to use gestures for maximum impact; even a new approach to organizing your content so that audiences can retain what you say. Learn how presenters from Fortune 100 companies significantly increase and improve their clarity, impact, and - not incidentally - their closing ratios.

Large group presentations

HF5718 .W56 pt. 4

9 minutes

Part four of the series Winning them over with Paul LeRoux. Discusses the common pitfalls of speaking to large groups and how to avoid them through appropriate positioning of lecterns, screens and speakers. Demonstrates the correct use of a microphone.

Life is a series of presentations (DVD) Markham Campus

HF5718.22 .L54 2004

24 minutes

Presentations are opportunities to inspire, inform and influence others. The video defines presentations as any type of communication, whether done through e-mail, voice mail, telephone, one-on-one interactions, or presentations to groups. This program shows how improving work place communications using the P.O.I.N.T Model can bring success in the business world.

Mass communication York Campus

P90 .M37 1997

15 minutes

Mass communication has three functions-- to inform, to entertain, and to sell. These functions are examined as the hosts explore the manipulation of truth. They focus on the differences between mass media and other types of communication with regard to intimacy and feedback, and they comment on the potential of the Internet to redefine these concepts within a mass media communication medium.

Powerful presentation skills

HF5718.22 .P66 1993

147 minutes, 3 videocassettes

Debra Smith teaches the techniques of presentation - that get a group's attention, hold their interest and persuade them to act.

Presenting & communicating research (DVD)

P96 .M4 P74 2004

23 minutes

In every research project comes the moment of truth: the presentation. Effective presentations need thoughtful content, solid structure and appropriate format.

Public speaking: time to stand (DVD)

PN4129.15 .P82 2003

27 minutes

Dr. Tina Dupree shares her techniques for building confidence as a public speaker. Topics covered include how to turn fear into an asset, master the art of small talk, create a "30-second commercial," assess an audience, choose the right words, organize a speech, and improve delivery.

Questions and answers

HF5718 .W56 pt.5

7 minutes

Shows how to promote questions and how to disarm tough ones. Demonstrates a 3-step process for effectively answering questions viewers learn how to involve the entire audience in discussions.

So you want to be a success at selling: part 2 presentation (DVD)

HF5438.25.S7222 2007

25 minutes

How to explain the benefits, meet objections, and spot the buying signals is covered in part 2: the presentation. Sales staff learn how to stay cool and dispassionate even when a customer criticises them or their products.

Speaking effectively-- to one or one thousand (DVD)

PN4121 .S678 1992

21 minutes

Presents four main components of public speaking: mental, visual, vocal, and verbal. The aim of the video is to help anyone to become a better, more accomplished speaker.

Speaking to one person or a roomful: proven techniques that will make you a master communicator (DVD) York Campus

HF5718 .S64 2004

22 minutes

In this entertaining program, the viewer will discover how to enhance your tone of voice and body language and learn the "exact words to say" and what to do in difficult situations.

Speaking without fear or nervousness

PN4121 .S63865 1995

98 minutes, 2 videocassettes

Helen Sutton discusses why people fear public speaking, how to confront these fears, how to regain composure when it slips, how to build self-confidence in one's public speaking skills, and how individuals can psych themselves up before making oral presentations.

The speeches of Adolf Hitler York Campus

DD247.H5 A5 1990

50 minutes

Includes over a decade of oratory of Hitler's most dramatic speeches, revealing the demonic phrases he used to hypnotize the masses.

The speeches of General Douglas MacArthur York Campus

E745.M3 M33 1990

55 minutes

Listen to the words of the WWII General, Douglas MacArthur- they are eerily prophetic. He speaks about the arms race, the future of communist China and the rise of Japan's affluence, and we hear again his "I shall return" speech.

The speeches of Martin Luther King Jr. York Campus

E185.97.K5 A5 1988

60 minutes

Chronicles Martin Luther King Jr.'s speeches from his early days in Montgomery to the great march on Washington, including the final prophetic speech in Memphis days before his assassination.

The speeches of Nelson Mandela York Campus

DT1974 .S64 1995

70 minutes

The speeches of Nelson Mandela offers a demonstration of his oratory prowess, from his long fight against apartheid, to his triumphant release from prison and ensuing political career.

The speeches of Robert F. Kennedy York Campus

E840.8.K4 S64 1990

55 minutes

Robert Kennedy was one of the most moving and effective speakers of our time. Here are his speeches at Columbia University, to the Democratic convention in 1964, his proposals on Vietnam policies, and his heart-rending eulogy at the funeral of his brother John.

The speeches of Winston Churchill York Campus

DA566.9.C5 A5 1988

30 minutes

Through his parliamentary and radio speeches to the British people during World War II, Churchill summoned up such wellsprings of national pride and fervor that his poetic words would earn him a Nobel Prize for literature. This video chronicles those speeches.

Staging

HF5718 .W56 pt 3

11 minutes

Part three of the series Winning them over with Paul LeRoux. Discusses the proper use of lecterns, screens and flipcharts; problems with using overheads and how to resolve them; and tips for mastering the mechanics of visual props.

Student speeches

PN4121 .S83445 1997

30 minutes

Part of the series Speaking with confidence. Video shows students how to plan an oral presentation that includes confidence builders in the planning stage. It also shows students how to prepare for a confident delivery which includes techniques for eliminating stage fright.

Teamwork essentials. Presentations without fear

HD66 .T443 1997

17 minutes

Learn practical skills to help overcome the five most daunting challenges when making presentations - the fear spiral, the talking trap, the unmotivated group, the unplanned interruption and the difficult person.

Visuals

HF5718 .W56 pt. 2

14 minutes

Part two of the series Winning them over with Paul LeRoux. A picture is worth a thousand words! Shows how visuals can stimulate a viewer's interest and retention, and also provide powerful tools that help presenters organize their materials and persuade their audiences.

Your next speech: the basics of how to plan, write and give a winning presentation (DVD)

PN 4193 B8 B37 2006

30 minutes

Based on the book: Your next speech: 75 ways to improve it. Be ready to anticipate the moment. Feel the goals and aspirations of your audience and make the presentation of your life! Divided into three sections--planning, writing and giving a presentation, this training program will help you overcome the "presentation jitters" and deliver what the audience expects--a great speech!

Last updated: June 2011