

OBTAINING PERSISTENT LINKS TO VIDEO TITLES

NBC Learn

1. Find and open the film that you are interested in.

The screenshot shows a Mozilla Firefox browser window with the URL `highered.nbclearn.com/portal/site/HigherEd`. The main content area displays a video player for "Native American Arts and Crafts Exhibition" (Air Date: 02/20/2002). The video player shows a man, Al Roker, on the "TODAY SHOW". Below the video player, there are buttons for "SAVE", "NOTES", "SHARE", "PRINT", and "DOWNLOAD". A black arrow points to the "SHARE" button. To the right of the video player, there is a "TRANSCRIPT" button. Below the video player, there is a grid of video thumbnails with titles such as "Native American Arts and Crafts Exhibition", "Machu Picchu: The Lost City of the Incas", "Lost City of Caral in Peru Had Pyramids Like Those in Ancient Egypt", "Gathering of Nations Performs Traditional Dance", "Disney's 'Pocahontas' Brings Tourists to Her English Grave", and "National Museum of the Native American Opens in New York City".

2. Click "SHARE"

3. Copy and paste the “Cue Card link” URL into a text editor.

4. Add “<http://lcweb.senecac.on.ca:2048/login?url=>” to the front of the URL.

For example:

<http://lcweb.senecac.on.ca:2048/login?url=http://highered.nbclearn.com/portal/site/HigherEd/browse?cuecard=6062> is a link to the above video.

5. Test links before posting via email, course webpages, etc.
